

I have been a financial supporter of K-love for several years now because I believe they provide a great service to families who enjoy listening to music together. If an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming were to replace K-love we would have no way of knowing about community events that are family oriented offered by churches in our area. The service K-love provides is in the public interest because it offers family friendly, commercial free, positive music.